

The United States has the most tornadoes of any nation in the world.

Severe thunderstorms bring damaging winds, large hail, and deadly lightning. And when conditions are right, tornadoes with wind speeds from 72 to almost 300 mph can erupt. Early warning is our best defense. Trained Storm Spotters are the 'eyes and ears' of Wisconsin's early warning system.

Volunteer to be a Storm Spotter and attend training near you.

Photo courtesy Rusty Kapela

2016 SKYWARN TORNADO SPOTTER'S TRAINING

LOCATION: Germantown Hall N7560 17th Avenue
New Lisbon, Wisconsin 53950

DATE: April 11, 2016
TIME: 6:30 PM

FURTHER INFORMATION: CONTACT: Gervase Thompson PHONE: (608) 847-9393

