Chore Service Chart

The ADRC does NOT recommend any of these individuals. Finding a chore service worker can be difficult so the ADRC is making this list available to the community in hopes to make the search easier.

This list includes individuals who are willing to provide help with indoor chores, outdoor chores, and other types of assistance. Criminal background checks are conducted and references are checked by the ADRC director. The workers included on the Chore Service Charts are NOT employed nor supervised by the ADRC.

How to Hire a Worker - some things to keep in mind as you decide who to hire for help.

- Trust your instincts! Remember that this person will be coming into your home and you should never feel unsafe in your home.
- Make a List. Develop a list of exactly what jobs you want completed. Also, it's a good idea to have an idea of how much you are willing to pay the individual.
- Start with a telephone interview. Describe the jobs you have in mind and be clear about your expectations. Ask about hours and wages. Also ask if there will be any extra costs (such as mileage or gas). Ask them about their previous job experiences too! During this call, do not give too much person information - such as your last name or address. The ADRC performs background checks and short interviews. If you feel that you need to speak with one of their personal references, it is okay to ask the individual for a personal reference.
 - If you don't think the individual is a good fit for you, it is NOT necessary to schedule a face-to-face interview.
- Schedule a time to met them. It can be a good idea to have someone with you (like a neighbor or family member) with you during your interview. Their company will make you feel more comfortable and they will be able to give you their perspective about the individual.

Concerns - It is important to notify the ADRC anytime you have a question or concern regarding a worker in you home. TRUST YOUR INSTINCTS! Please remember that this person is coming into your home and you should never feel unsafe or uncomfortable. Again, it is important to call the ADRC at 608-847-9371 anytime you have questions or concerns.

Chore Service Chart

The Interview

Before the interview, make a list of questions that are important to you. We have provided example questions below.

1. What days and hours are you available?
2. What is your experience?
3. What is your current employment situation?
4. How flexible is your schedule?
5. What kinds of special training, if any, have you had?
6. What are your salary requirements? Is it negotiable?
7. Would you ever have an occasions to bring someone with you?
8. Would you agree to a trial period?
9. What do you like about this type of work?
10. Do you have reliable transportation?
11. What if you can't be here at the agreed time?

Some signs of a problem include:

- The assigned work is not done or complete
- The worker comes in late and/or leaves early
- Personal items are missing from your home
- You do not feel comfortable with the worker

If at any time you feel unsafe or uncomfortable, please contact the ADRC at (608)847-9371 and we can help resolve the problem.
