PRESIDENT'S/EXECUTIVE REPORT

Joe went over marketing ideas which includes an expanded email list of visitors with a sign up for people receiving free giveaways. This would be used as a tool to help Hidden Valleys advertisers promote their businesses and it will also help to promote Hidden Valleys.

NEW BUSINESS

Due to the flooding issues in Southwest Wisconsin affecting advertisers in the Hidden Valleys area, Sandy presented some ideas to help businesses; the advertising sales date will be extended to 9-30-18 and the financial charge of 1.5% of overdue accounts will be waived until May 2019.

Sandy noted these date changes will also affect dates for graphics, printing, delivery, and proofing by the board. The 1st proofing will not be able to be done until the November meeting while the 2nd proofing will be pushed back into December. The guide may not get to the printer until the end of January or the beginning of February. The distribution most likely will not start until later in February but will be out in time for the trade shows that Hidden Valleys will be attending.

For the calendar of events in future guides, Carol made a suggestion to have the January events of the next year be placed in the year the current guide is published. She also suggested having verbiage to promote advertisers included in the guide. Joe will write up a comment regarding promoting advertisers hit with flooding.

Sandy presented a draft of the 2019 front cover featuring Juneau County. She will take suggestions back to Juneau County Economic Development.

Sales report for the attending sales people noted that their guide count is low for each of the counties. It was noted that there are many cases of guides still in Green County which are available. Sandy will pick up some guides from Richland County for the WCA [Wisconsin Counties Association] conference September 24th. Ron made a motion to pay mileage to Sandy for setting up and attending the WCA conference. Seconded by Rocky. Motion carried.
